KIDS & TEENS EDITION

Discovering Who God Created You to Be

✦ Powerful Opening

You weren't created by accident.
You weren't made "just like everybody else."
Before the world ever whispered who you should be, God already declared who you are.

You are a masterpiece—designed with purpose, wrapped in promise, and shaped with divine intention. Every gift, every emotion, every question, every dream inside you... it's all part of God's design.

You are not random.
You are not overlooked.
You are chosen, known, and crafted by the One who makes galaxies.

You are By Divine Design.

CHAPTER 1

Psalm 139:14 – “I praise You because I am fearfully and wonderfully made.”

Kids and teens often compare themselves—height, talents, popularity, social media likes.

But God didn’t design you to blend in.

He designed you to stand out with the exact mix of abilities, personality, strengths, and even weaknesses that make you uniquely powerful.

Relatable Themes:

- Feeling different at school
- Struggling with self-image
- Trying to fit into friend circles

Life Application:

- Write down 3 things God made special about you.

- Thank Him for one thing you used to dislike about yourself.

CHAPTER 2

DESIGNED WITH CREATIVITY

Ephesians 2:10 – “For we are God’s workmanship...”

God creates on purpose. When He made you, He didn’t rush. He imagined your smile, your imagination, your ideas—and said, “This is good.”

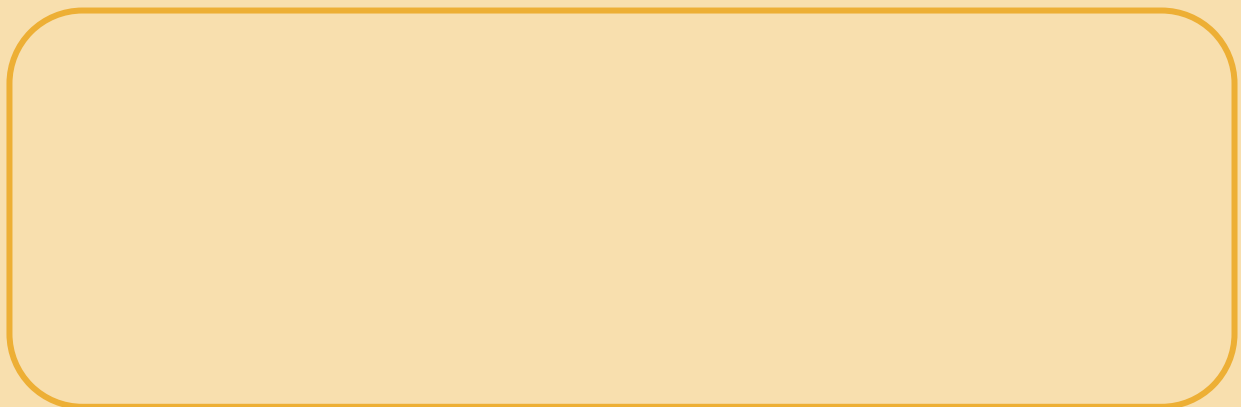

Creative Concepts:

- “Purpose Pages”

A journal section where kids and teens write dreams

- Design Blueprint

Draw or describe who you want to become

- Strength Stickers

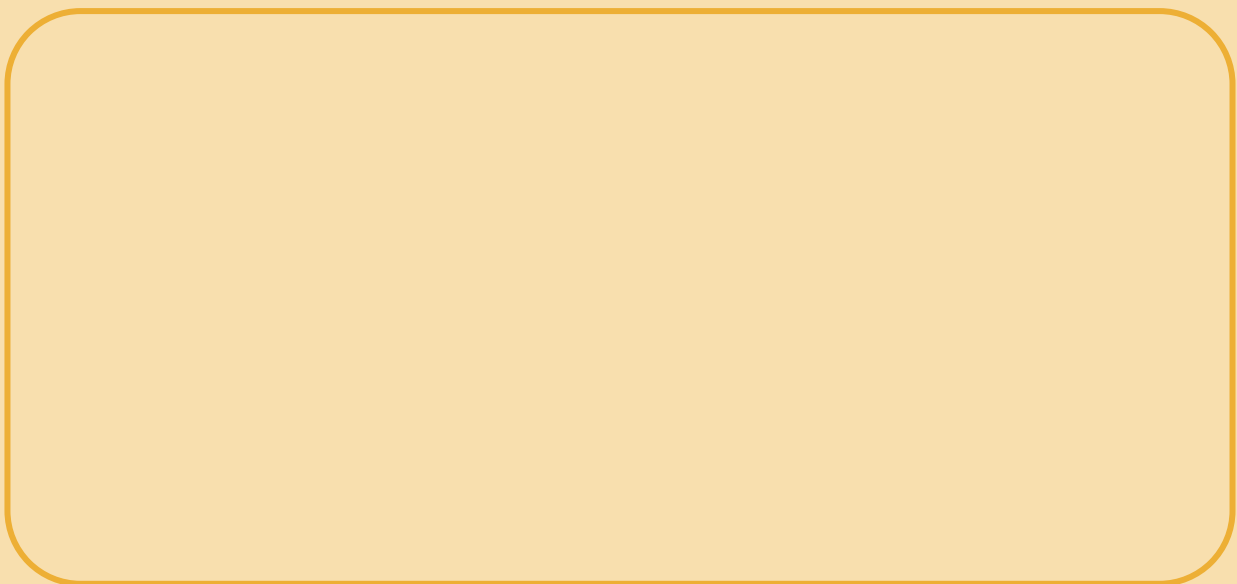

list strengths as if they're badges on a superhero suit

Relatable Themes:

- Feeling like your gifts don't matter
- Being afraid to try new things
- Comparing creativity to others

Life Application:

Try one new creative activity this week—art, writing, music, building, robotics, baking, designing, or problem-solving.

CHAPTER 3

DESIGNED WITH EMOTION

Psalm 34:17 – “The Lord hears His people when they call to Him.”

You don’t have to hide how you feel—God designed emotions, too.

Brave isn’t “not feeling scared.”

Brave is trusting God while you feel scared.

Strong isn’t “never feeling sad.”

Strong is knowing you’re loved even on hard days.

Relatable Themes:

- Anxiety about school or friends
- Not feeling “good enough”
- Navigating big feelings

Life Application:

Create a “God’s Got Me” list of emotions you give to Him.

CHAPTER 4

DESIGNED WITH PURPOSE

Jeremiah 29:11 – “...plans to give you hope and a future.”

Purpose isn't something you “find when you grow up.” It's something you live now—in kindness, in courage, in the way you treat others.

Kids & teens carry world-changing potential. God didn't just design you; He assigned you.

Relatable Themes:

- Feeling like you don't matter
- Wondering what your future holds
- Wanting to make a difference

Life Application:

Choose ONE way this week to shine God's love

- Help someone
- Encourage someone
- Stand up for someone

CHAPTER 5

DESIGNED TO SHINE

Matthew 5:14 — “You are the light of the world.”

Your light matters.

Your voice matters.

Your presence makes a difference.

God placed something inside you that the world needs—
and the moment you embrace who you are By Divine
Design, that light gets brighter.

Creative Concepts:

- “Shine Statements” — positive declarations
- “Light Challenge” — daily acts of kindness
- “Glow Goals” — dreams paired with prayer

Closing Words

You are not a mistake.

You are not invisible.

You are not ordinary.

You are designed, chosen, anointed, and purposed.

The world needs your shine.

Heaven celebrates your existence.

And God—your Designer—smiles every time He looks at you.

Walk boldly.

Dream freely.

Shine brightly.

Because you are By Divine Design.
